

English

Reading:

- Class texts: Rooftoppers by Katherine Rundell and The Watertower by Gary Crew and Steven Woolman

Writing:

- Theme: Identify and find your voice
- Purpose: To narrate
- Audience: Year 5
- Form: Illustrated short story
- Impact: The reader will be tense

Spelling: Year 5 and 6 common exception words

Our School Rule:

Respect yourself, others and the environment.

PE-Gymnastics

- A range of rolls (straddle, forward, backward, teddy bear etc.)
- A range of balances (counter, bridge etc.)

Year Six Curriculum

Overview Autumn 2

This half term we will be learning about...

RE

- Living by rules
- Being fair and just
- Creating unity and harmony

Maths

- Fractions

Equivalent fractions, simplifying fractions, comparing and ordering fractions, adding and subtracting fractions, multiplying fractions and dividing fractions

- Weekly arithmetic lessons

PSHE – Celebrating Differences

- Understand there are different perceptions about what normal means

Geography–Population

- Why does population change?
- Where people are distributed around Earth
- Why areas are densely and sparsely populated
- Reasons for population growth and decline

Music–Classroom Jazz

Bacharach Anorak and Meet The Blues

- Listen and Appraise
- Playing instruments and improvising

Science

Electrifying–Electrical circuits

- Understand the effect of changing voltage
- Use recognised symbols when representing a simple circuit in a diagram

DT– Textiles–Waistcoats

- Use a template to mark and cut out a design
- Use a running stitch to join fabric
- Attach a secure fastening and decorative objects

Computing– AI and Machine Learning

- Explore real world apps that use AI and ML
- Create a smart classroom

French – French Football Champions

- Construct the sentence, 'I come from [a place]' in French.
- Please ensure your child is accessing SAT's companion at home to support their learning